SHORTHORN BREEDERS' ASSN. FALL SHOW and SALE

SHORTHORNS

POLLED SHORTHORNS

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, 1958

ALBION, ILLINOIS

Winning the trophy for Best Group of Three, 1958 Spring Tri-State sale, was the entry of Koreandale Farms, Morganfield, Kentucky, shown on the front cover.

Lloyd Saxe, Albion, Ill., showing Headline Silver Chief x, reserve grand champion, 1957 Fall sale by Collynie Headline x.

The Breed's Fastest Expanding Association

In a span of less than two years this semi-annual event has grown into one of the breed's most important sales. This, the fourth renewal, will be the largest sale offering numerically to be sold in the Midwest this fall. There are more consignors and more herds represented than in any other sale in this region. A total of 30 herds from four states . . . will consign . . . each herd bringing a few of the very best.

There are reasons why some sales grow in stature, while others dwindle. The need for a sale is a factor. The Tri-State Association serves a wide area and a most important beef cattle area. More important, are the men who stand behind this sale. There is no more aggressive, forward looking group of men in the business. In this fall's sale we bring forward the largest group of cattle yet offered . . . but this is only the beginning. Here you will find the tools on which to build a strong herd. Remember, too, if you live in the wide area which this association encompasses, you will be welcomed as a member and as a future consignor.

THE TRI-STATE SHORTHORN BREEDERS' ASSOCIATION

Lloyd Saxe, Albion, Illinois, President.

Roy Siegle, St. Francisville, Illinois, Vice-President.

Fred Wedemeyer, Jr., Mt. Vernon, Illinois, Secy.-Treas.
